We are thrilled to gather together again for our modern spin on tashlich. Mark the start of your new year with a free event by Reboot and the JCCSF

Reset your system with our modern spin on a 600-year-old Rosh Hashanah ritual called tashlich. This custom of ridding ourselves of all our bad vuggum (karma) from the previous year and getting a fresh start for the new one is traditionally enacted by tossing crumbs into the ocean. Join us on Tuesday, Sept. 7 at 5:00 p.m. PT by the shore at Ocean Beach for a brief, engaging ritual. Bring a shofar, if you have one, to blow along with some of San Francisco's finest players from the Jazz Mafia, the Irish Pipers Band, Church of John Coltrane and guitarist and vocalist Luther Dickinson of the Grammy-nominated North Mississippi Allstars. *This year we will provide birdseed instead of bread to be better stewards of our wildlife and environment. The event is free but please RSVP here.

Per the CDC guidelines, all attendees will be required to wear masks regardless of vaccination status.

By entering the physical area of the Tashliq event or participating in Tashliq, you accept the inherent risks and liability. Participants are required to sign in and accept liability waiver. But, you accept liability by your physical presence in the area of Tashliq if you do not sign the waiver. Read waiver here.

RELATED

Tashlich

Tashlich or Tashlikh, (תשליך) is a ceremony every Rosh Hashanah marking the beginning of the new year when we “cast off” the old year and, with it, the things we chose not to carry forward. It is one of the most symbolic of Jewish ceremonies...\(more\)

Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah, aka the Jewish New Year, is the big one when it comes to the Jewish calendar. It literally translates from Hebrew to mean “Head of The Year,” commemorates the birth of the Universe (no biggie) and the birth of Adam and Eve, and...\(more\)
