Chai Lifeline NJ/PA Announces Dates for Camp Simcha Without Borders for Lakewood Children

JUL 04 2020 10:25 PM

After months of quarantine, lockdown, and isolation, children with serious illnesses will have an exciting summer to look forward to thanks to Chai Lifeline's new Camp Simcha Without Borders initiative. For the first time in its history, Camp Simcha and Camp Simcha Special, Chai Lifeline's flagship summer programs for children with cancer, blood disorders, and all forms of chronic illness, will run day camps in cities across the United States.

Chai Lifeline NJ/PA will host girls' and boys' sessions of Camp Simcha Without Borders in Lakewood on August 2 – 6. "We are excited to bring the magic of Camp Simcha to Lakewood and help restore a much-needed sense of normalcy and joy in the lives of our local children and families," said Rabbi Sruli Fried, MSW, director of Chai Lifeline NJ/PA.

Chai Lifeline has been working closely with health and government officials to create and implement a safe and exciting program that will conform with all local regulations and CDC guidelines. An incredible team of camp staff is hard at work, coordinating the details of what is certain to be an unforgettable summer for Chai Lifeline children in Lakewood.

Chai Lifeline is an international children's health support network providing social, emotional, and financial assistance to children with life-threatening or lifelong
